

Electrical Assembling Technician

JAE Houston, LLC is looking for an Electrical Assembling Technician who will provide the repair work for JAE's and/or 3rd party's directional module package and/or similar products for the oil & gas industries for the Houston Repair Center (JAE Houston, LLC).

Responsibilities:

1. Unpacking the products
2. The repair work will consist of:
 - a. Visual Inspection
 - b. Removing adhesive without extra damage of chassis, wire harness, components, and other parts
 - c. Removing the damaged parts and replacing them with new parts in correct position and proper alignment
 - d. Soldering with HMP solder
 - e. Placing adhesive
3. Packing the products
4. Data entry of defect information, repair work

Qualifications:

- General computer skills for data entry
- Skillful high temperature soldering experience in electrical assembly with HMP solder
- Computer proficiency in Microsoft applications
- Great attention to detail

Education: High School Diploma or equivalent

Experience: A minimum 2-3 years of related operational experience.

Location: Sugar Land, Texas

JAE Electronics, Inc. is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

To apply for this position, please submit your resume to jae.humanresources@jae.com. Only candidates with the above qualifications and experience will be considered.